FAQs

- 1. Are your chapter women required to live in the chapter facility?
 - No, members are provided in-house residency as an option after their new member year. Members fill out a leasing preference form, and the house is filled first come first serve. If the house is not filled through the preference form, executive members will be called to fill the remaining spaces.
- 2. Is your meal plan required?
 - Yes, our meal plan is required for all members unless they have a medical condition that requires accommodations. All members are provided lunch and dinner Monday through Friday. In-house members are given breakfast, and there are typically snacks available. New members are allowed to attend breakfast until initiation. There is only one option for the meal plan, which applies to all members.
- 3. Does your national organization offer scholarships?
 - Our nationals does offer scholarships, but due to the timeline offered, new members typically are not eligible for the scholarships their first year. We will have chapter presentations on scholarship opportunities for the 2027-2028 year.
- 4. Do you offer a payment plan?
 - We allow chapter women to customize a payment plans through our platform Revela. Members will provide their preferred dates and amounts for the semester to complete the total dues amount. Chapter women will submit their preferences for a payment plan and can follow through with it displaying their individual plans.
